Airport employee - A

Passenger - P

A: Hello. Your ____ please.

P: Here you are.

A: Are you travelling alone or with another ____?

P: Alone.

A: Do you have ____ and a ____?

P: Only one backpack.

A: Would you like to have a ____ next to the window?

P: Yes, please.

A: Here is your passport and ____.

P: Thanks. Where should I go now?

A: Take the ____ to get to the Departures hall. Have a nice flight!

P: Thank you.

Words to use: escalator, passport, luggage, passenger, boarding pass, backpack, seat.

Task 7: Vocabulary revision

Play snowball.

Teacher: I need to take my passport while travelling.

Student: I need to take my passport and my luggage while travelling.

Words to use:

1. Passport
2. Luggage
3. Backpack
4. Foreign Currency
5. Camera
6. Seat
7. Boarding pass
8. Passenger
9. Escalator

Task 8: Freer practice.

Do you agree? Explain your choice.

1. Taking the escalator is slower than taking the stairs.
2. It's better to take a camera with you than to use your phone to take photos.
3. Travelling with luggage is more comfortable than travelling with a backpack.
4. The best seat is next to the window.
5. I am always happy when there is a passenger next to me because I can talk with him.
6. Having online boarding pass is more comfortable, because you will not lose it.
7. The photo on the passport is very important because you may have some trouble while travelling.
