Peter's summer holidays

Mr and Mrs Gray live in a big city. Mr Gray works in a bank and spends a lot of time at work. Mrs Gray is fond of music and art. They have a son. His name is Peter. He is very good at Maths, English, History and Chemistry. He likes swimming very much.

This year they spent their summer holidays in the country. They found a nice big house not very far from Mr Gray's office. They went there at the beginning of June. There were three bedrooms, one large living room, a nice kitchen with two cupboards, a sink and a cooker in the house. There was also a big garden with many trees and beautiful flowers in front of the house. Mr and Mrs Gray looked after the garden and were very happy. Next to the house, there was a small swimming pool. Peter invited his friends to their house and swam with them. They also listened to music and sunbathed. In the evenings they played football. Peter was really very happy on summer holidays.
